IECnet adds new member in the USA

IECnet, the international network of independent audit, accounting and tax practices, is pleased to announce that it has a new member in the USA.

Guzman & Guzman, PA was founded in 2000 in Miami, Florida, United States of America, to provide professional services in accounting and taxation, IRS problem resolution, estates and trusts, business formation, financial planning and investment, real estate and business sales. The firm prides itself on serving clients with an unsurpassed level of customer service, satisfaction and overall knowledge of each individual's needs.

The firm provides extensive knowledge and experience in cross-border business operations, particularly international, federal and state taxation. It has particular knowledge of financial and tax strategies for foreign investments into the U.S. serving Latin American, Asian and European companies. It advises domestic and foreign based businesses and investors on their out-bound and in-bound ventures, focusing on the U.S. tax impact.

Companies pursuing international opportunities face an array of international tax planning and compliance challenges. Multinational businesses are increasingly affected by tax, legislative, and regulatory developments throughout the world. In order to survive in the international marketplace, companies must adapt to the impact that these developments have on business operations and transactions between nations. Helping clients take decisive actions and achieve sustainable results ensures clients have capabilities to move forward and be successful in their business endeavors. The firm can assist in structuring your business in a tax-efficient manner, both locally and globally.

Guzman & Guzman, PA is proud and happy to join IECnet as the Florida, United States member of a network composed of professionals with the highest standards worldwide.
